So close yet so far
 Hopes for dialogue still flicker

By Anwar Hossain

THE GOVERNMENT'S decision to open dialogue with the Awami League (AL) has been hailed as a historic step towards ending the long-standing conflict in Bangladesh. However, the government's decision to open dialogue with the AL has been met with mixed reactions. While some see it as a positive step towards ending the long-standing conflict, others are skeptical, fearing that the government is merely trying to buy time for its military operations.
